The Cambridge Nonprofit Summit I:

A facilitated exchange of ideas for Executive Directors

June 11, 2013

1. Nonprofits are concerned about the quality of life in Cambridge.
2. Cambridge is rich in resources but poor in access.
3. Nonprofit collaboration can help meet unfilled needs.
4. Cross-sector partnerships can also be central to serving Cambridge residents.

The Cambridge Nonprofit Summit I:

A Unified Message from Cambridge Nonprofits

Cambridge nonprofit leadership is ready to build strong partnerships—with each other and with other sectors—in order to meet changing needs, close the opportunity gap, and improve the quality of life for the community.

The Cambridge Nonprofit Summit II:

A facilitated exchange of ideas for Executive Directors

October 3, 2013

Participants narrowed in on several commitments that will guide future work:

- Collaboration
- Strategy for Success
- Strengthening the Sector
- Serving Cambridge

The Cambridge Nonprofit Coalition: Mission and Vision

The Cambridge Nonprofit Coalition strengthens the Cambridge nonprofit sector by building collective voice and promoting collaboration in order to meet changing needs and improve the quality of life for the community.

The Cambridge nonprofit sector will have the community support, resources, information, and legislative standing to enact positive change for Cambridge residents.

The Cambridge Nonprofit Coalition

Core Values

1. Collaboration: We advance inter- and intra- sector partnerships that benefit the community.
2. Inclusion: We take an asset-based approach to connecting people and organizations.
3. Transparency: We are open and honest, and we seek similar accountability from our partners.
4. Strategy: We strive for efficient effectiveness, and base our essential work on in-depth research.
5. Leadership: We strengthen the sector with knowledge sharing, network building and innovation.
